RUSSIANS ANXIOUS TO FIGHT IT OUT

It is Said Rojentsvsky Will Win or Sink With His Ship.

Togo Will Postpone a Fight For the Present—Third Baltic Fleet Expected.

JAP SHIPS SOMETIMES SEEN.

St. Petersburg, April 26.—The minister of the interior has issued secret orders that all letters from abroad be opened. Several letters to your correspondent have been opened. One of these was from a sister of charity in Mukden. It stated that as soon as General Linevitch took command of the army in Manchuria he dismissed all telegraph employees. An investigation proved that twenty-seven of fifty operators were in communication with the Japanese. Several of the operators were hanged by Linevitch's orders.

Third Baltic Fleet Expected.
Penang Island, Straits of Settlement, April 26.—It is expected that the third Baltic squadron, under the command of Admiral Nebogatoff will pass here today. Authorities are keeping a close watch for the fleet and are patrolling the approaches to the harbor every night.

Will Go Close to Philippines.
Hong Kong, April 26.—The British steamer Calchas has arrived here and reports sighting three Russian battleships and two cruisers this morning off Linting Island, steering southeast. Linting Island is in the China sea near the main coast of China, southwest of Hong Kong. The course of the squadron as reported, if continued, will bring the fleet close to the Philippines.

Playing a Waiting Game.
Washington, April 26.—The general opinion of naval officers here is that Togo is planning a "waiting game." He will probably try to pick off straggling Russian vessels with torpedo boats.

No Naval Battle Soon.
St. Petersburg, April 26.—Admiralty circles are coming to accept the view that there will be no great or general action between the fleets of Russia and Japan for some time, basing their belief on strategic and tactical reasons, which incline Togo to avoid decisive action until he has made every effort to demoralize the Russian fleet by torpedo attacks and interference with transports by his cruiser division.

The admiralty scouts the reports that engagements have already occurred, pointing out the distance separating the places where the dispatches originated; and a naval staff captain declared that reports from English sources should not be doubted, but even mistrusted. The probability of a sortie by the Vladivostok squadron in an attempt to join Rojentsvsky is discussed by the Razvedchik, a military weekly paper, which confirms the report that Vladivostok harbor is free of ice, and comments on this accession of strength to Rojentsvsky. The paper also intimates that there is a possibility that Nebogatoff may await a second reinforcing squadron, and expresses the opinion that Rojentsvsky will now proceed as rapidly as possible to Vladivostok.

Russian Cruisers Near.
Saigon, Cochinchina, April 26.—It is reported that four Russian cruisers are lying off the coast. Statements that the crew of the Russian protected cruiser Diana joined Rojentsvsky's squadron are again pronounced absolutely unfounded. On the contrary since the Diana has been here the most minute precautions have been taken to prevent slightest breach of neutrality. With the exception of Dr. Storm who was invited to Russia one non-commissioned officer who died and two sailors who were invalided the crew remains the same. The commander of the Diana has given his parole and reports daily to the French commandant. All essential parts of the Diana's machinery are on board the French battleship Redoubtable.

Russia Wants a Battle.
Saigon, April 26.—Advices just received from Kamranh Bay say that twenty Japanese warships passed the bay between 8 and 9 o'clock in the evening of April 23.

Two ships loaded with rice for Saigon and bound for Japan have been captured by ships belonging to the Russian squadron.

Russian officers are reported to have declared that Admiral Rojentsvsky is determined to fight Admiral Togo and will endeavor to van-

EXPLOSION ON THE MAINE.

"Flareback" on the Big Battleship
Injures Three People.

Pensacola, Fla., April 26.—A "flareback" or explosion of gases on the battleship Maine caused the injury of three men. This fact did not become known until yesterday, when the ship came into harbor and began coaling. It then leaked out that the "flareback" had occurred while the vessel was on the target range, badly burning three men in one of the turrets. It is asserted that a catastrophe similar to that on the Missouri a year ago was narrowly averted. The "flareback" which is one of the dangers of the men of the navy, occurred a few days after the Maine went on the target range, and is the second to occur since the vessels have been at target practice.

It is asserted that gases had formed in the breech of the gun and that when another charge was inserted the "flareback" occurred, being caused by some particles of burning powder or covering not having been removed. The three men are on the sick list but their injuries are not serious.

WIFE HANGED TO POLE.

Gross Discovery of a Kansas
Minister Married But a Few Days.

Salina, Kan., April 26.—Word has been received here of the suicide of Mrs. Lawyer, wife of Rev. Henry C. Lawyer, pastor of the Methodist church at Tecumseh. Mrs. Lawyer fastened a curtain pole across the stairway in their home and hanged herself to the pole. Her husband was in the house at the time, but was busy with preparations for his Sunday sermon, and it was more than an hour before he discovered the dead body of his wife. The couple had been married but a few weeks.

A DECISION

IN THE STREET CAR COMPANY'S SUIT FOR INJUNCTION.

Order to Grant a Temporary Injunction
Issued and Dissolved—Appeal to Be Taken.

Argument in the suit brought by the Paducah City Railway Co. against the city of Paducah to construe the company's franchise and decide if the city or street car company pays for the concrete under and between the car tracks where streets are to be improved, was concluded this morning but no decision has been rendered.

Judge Reed after the conclusion of arguments today, decided to issue an order granting a temporary restraining order, but within half an hour and before the order was recorded, recalled it, which leaves the case where it was before. The injunction asked is to keep the city from going ahead with street work until the points in the controversy are settled.

The street car company attorneys in the case say that no such point as mentioned in another paper, that the old street car franchise holds good now, although it has long ago been renounced and a new franchise sold and adopted by the car company was raised by the city's attorneys.

This afternoon just before press time the case was taken up again by Judge Reed and a temporary injunction granted, and a motion immediately made to dissolve the injunction.

Judge Reed then dissolved the injunction, and the street car company will take an appeal and have the case settled by the court of appeals, which is desired by both sides.

It is likely the city can now go on with the work if it wants to run the risk of liability for damages in case the street car company wins in the higher court.

quish the Japanese squadron or sink with it. Admiral Rojentsvsky has given every detail of the coming conflict his particular attention. Togo's flagship will be his objective, according to a special plan.

More fighting at sea was heard at Kamranh Bay Sunday morning. The reports were extremely faint.

St. Petersburg, April 26.—The Russ formally denied that M. Witte has resigned the presidency of the committee of ministers. The paper explains that he is worn out with work and in urgent need of rest, but insists that he has not resigned. In financial circles it is reported that M. Witte may accept the management of the Russo-Chinese bank.

The Bourse Gazette published a report that General Kuropatkin, commander of the First Manchurian army, will return from the front and be succeeded by Gen. Kaibars, commander of the Second Manchurian army.

Ten Miners Dashed to Death By Cutting of Hoisting Rope.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., April 26.—Ten miners fell to their death in the Conyngham shaft of the Delaware and Hudson Coal company this morning by breaking of a hoisting rope.

The shaft is almost a thousand feet deep and the men were being lowered to work when the accident occurred.

All were dashed to the bottom a mangled mass of flesh and bone.

A rescue party was lowered on the other side of the shaft and found the mangled bodies. The engineer says the machinery was working perfectly and that the rope snapped without warning.

Up to noon seven bodies had been identified. The broken rope was found cut clean as with some sharp instrument.

A WHOLE NIGHT

A LUNATIC PASSENGER KEPT
OTHERS IN TERROR.

Was Captured By Police and Landed in Jail at St. Louis.

St. Louis, Mo., April 26.—Conductor Rebel Imboden, in charge of the Mobile and Ohio train, delivered Mike Brudofski, an insane man of Little Rock, to Policemen Schmolinski and Trotter, who forwarded him to the Emergency hospital. He also said that on his run from Mobile the crazy man's vagaries kept everybody on the train awake and in terror all night. Brudofski was put in the conductor's charge at Humboldt, Tenn., by the chief of police of that town, the latter asking Imboden to watch out for his demented passenger. And that's about all Conductor Imboden did all night.

Brudofski, every once in a while, would spring from his seat and, imagining there was an army of enemies in pursuit, skoot down the aisle of the coach and dash across the vestibule into the car ahead or behind, scaring the sleep out of those awake with his yells as he dashed along. All night he kept up this sort of thing, not a soul on the train daring to close his eyes after once or twice being aroused by Brudofski's outbursts.

At the Relay depot in East St. Louis, Brudofski sprang from the train, and would have run down one of the streets if a pair of policemen had not caught him. Some press men then sat on him while crossing the bridge until the Union Station police took him in charge. Brudofski's ticket reads to Pana, Ill.

Castro's Speech.

Caracas, Venezuela, April 26.—President Castro, in the course of a speech at Calabazo, on April 18, said:

"I do not believe there is a possibility of a new conflict for the republic, but, if, against reason, right and justice, anything is cogitating, which I do not wish to qualify. I swear to you I shall know how to draw inspiration from the memory of the valor of the patriots formerly exhibited in these plains; and if encouragement is wanting I shall seek it in the indomitable character of inhabitants of these districts, and so supported, challenge fate."

HELD PHOTOGRAPH

Of His Sweetheart When He Shot and Killed Himself.

Des Moines, Ia., April 26.—Holding in his hands a photograph of Miss Helen Haytun, who spurned his offer of marriage, Leon Clark, a nineteen-year-old student, shot and killed himself this morning.

Appointed Russian Minister.

Peking, April 26.—M. Pokotiloff, director of the Russo-Chinese bank, has been appointed Russian minister to China, to succeed Paul Lessar, who died recently.

British, Not Russians.

Hong Kong, April 26.—Later reports here indicate that the officers of the Calchas erred. The squadron sighted off Linting Island is composed of British, not Russian warships.

INK FADES

And Alarms Government Officials
About the Records.

Washington, April 26.—Because of the dangerous deterioration in papers and inks used in making up the records in the archives of the government, the bureau of chemistry has taken the first steps toward establishing a standard for the future under which all record paper is to be bought. An investigation has been begun into the qualities of paper, inks and type-writer ribbons.

Heads of departments have long been complaining that records have been fading and that the leaves are cracking and falling to pieces. Investigation disclosed the fact that the trouble began with the introduction of wood pulp paper. Records made in the days of linen paper during the revolutionary period are, in most cases, as clear today as when written. The Declaration of Independence is one of the few old-time documents that has faded.

WIFE ON PORCH

Has Caused a Big Sensation in Clarksville, Tenn.

Clarksville, Tenn., April 26.—A male infant, three days old, was found yesterday on the porch of the Methodist parsonage at St. Bethlehem. The affair has caused a sensation and some interesting developments are expected. The babe was wrapped in an old dress and was not harmed in any way. It was undressed.

It is the opinion in that community that the mother of the babe is in better circumstances than the garments indicate. The child is supposed to have come from the direction of Guthrie, Ky.

REPORT CASES

OF VIOLATION OF SANITARY
LAWS TO PRESIDENT PEND-
LEY.

He Wants to Keep the City Clean
—Meeting of the Board of Health Tonight.

There will be a meeting of the board of health tonight for the purpose of meeting sanitary inspectors and outlining the work to be done. Sanitary inspectors begin work May 1st, and there is much to do. The board has petitioned the legislative boards to place the control of these inspectors in the board of health's hands.

"If any resident will report to me any nuisance of any kind, I will give it my personal attention and see that it is remedied at once, or the person guilty warranted and prosecuted," President J. W. Pendley stated this morning. "There are a number of nuisances about the city and I constantly get reports of them. Some are remedied, but others are not, and in cases of the latter I shall get warrants. One man was warranted today and will be prosecuted in police court for a nuisance. We intend to clean the city and keep it in a good sanitary condition, and will appreciate the aid of any citizen in reporting cases to the board."

FIREMAN KILLED

York Last Night.

New York, April 26.—In a fire on the east side tonight Acting Battalion Chief Wieland was killed and one end of the block on Grand, Orchard and Allen streets was destroyed. Loss $200,000. The fire was under control and Wieland was ascending a ladder when it slipped and he was plunged through a plate glass window. He was removed to a hospital, where he died.

GEN. MILES

Is Tipped as the Next President of the Equitable.

New York, April 26.—Among the interesting stories current in financial circles is one that General Nelson A. Miles would be suggested by the New England policy holders for the presidency of the Equitable Assurance society. This, however, appeared to be merely a matter of gossip.

HAD BOMBS

Macedonian Revolutionists Arrested
On the Serbian Frontier This Morning.

Vienna, April 26.—Four Bulgarian revolutionists were arrested on the Serbian frontier. The men carried bombs and arms and had in their possession a list of Serbians they intended to assassinate.

EMPHATIC DENIAL BY JUDGE HARGIS

Declares He Never Conspired to Kill Anyone.

Did Feel Bitter Towards Tom Cockrell Because Cockrell Killed
Ben Hargis, His Brother.

MIXED BY CROSS-EXAMINATION.

Lexington, Ky., April 26.—Judge Jas. Hargis, on trial for the murder of James Cockrell, took the stand as the first witness for the defense, and after the preliminary questions as to his birth, parentage and education the Cockrell killing was taken up. Hargis entered a general denial of the principal statements made by the commonwealth's witnesses. He said that he felt bitter toward Tom Cockrell because Cockrell had killed his brother, Ben Hargis.

He made the further sensational statement that he had stated openly he would furnish any amount of money necessary to defend any man who should kill him. He said he had no feeling against James Cockrell and Cockrell's father was a close friend. He denied "Anse" White's statement that he (White) had been requested by Hargis to take the stand in the courthouse during Tom Cockrell's trial and when a pre-arranged disturbance occurred start to kill five men, among them James Cockrell.

Judge Hargis swore that on the day when Cockrell was assassinated he was asleep on a mattress in a room over his store shortly before the shooting. Wing Ford awoke him to tell him Cockrell was in town. Hargis says he expressed regret that Cockrell had come to town as he feared that he and Curt Jett would have trouble. Almost at this instant the fatal shots were fired.

After the firing he said that Curt Jett came up into his room and also James Brophy and Dug Hayes. Hargis called across the street to Judge Fleenor and asked who was shot. Fleenor replied Cockrell had been shot.

At this juncture in the trial the sheriff notified Judge Parker that a man was in the hallway of the court selling verses on the assassination of Marcum. The court thereupon excused Hargis and the jury and called the verse vendor into the room. He was Henry Dunnigan, a mountaineer, and he was reprimanded and dismissed.

The examination was then resumed. Hargis said that Callahan was not in the room nor was Alexander Hargis in Jackson that day. Hargis made sweeping denials of all the charges of the state witnesses. Hargis was cross-examined by the commonwealth today, and some of the questions caused him to make an answer contrary to his direct testimony.

"SPOT" KILLED

And the President Immediately
Avenged His Death.

Camp Roosevelt via Newcastle, Colo., April 26.—Spot was slain Monday. Spot was a favorite of President Roosevelt and John Goff's premier bear dog. He was only a fox terrier that weighed 12 pounds and he tackled a bear weighing 300. The president himself immediately avenged the murder of Spot.

A ride of 35 miles from West Divide creek to Mamm creek and back netted two black bears for the presidential party. The first bear was killed in the forenoon, shortly after reaching Mamm creek. Just after this killing Spot took up the trail of the dead bear's mate. Goff remained behind to take the pelt of the bear, while the president, Borah and Wells pursued Bruin. She was often at bay and apparently Spot ran out of patience, for at last he dashed in, and one blow of her paw settled Spot. President Roosevelt immediately shot the bear.

Goff was much affected by the death of his dog.

He is understood to be preparing a tribute to Spot, which he will ask to have included in the news sent out with Chapman to Secretary Loch.

The president is in excellent health and is highly elated with the successful outcome of his hunt thus far, but he longs for a shot at a grizzly.

FOR HER SAVINGS.

This Woman is Believed to Have Been Murdered in New York.

New York, April 26.—The lifeless body of Marie Ducci was found this morning in her apartment by her young daughter with her handkerchief stuffed down her throat. Two men called on the woman last night and all began drinking. It is thought she was murdered for her savings, which were hidden on her person.

Pepsin Syrup Co., Monticello, Ill.

Gentlemen:—Last summer I was all run down from the ravages of asthma. My digestion was just about as bad as it could be, to digest at all, and in fact I was in such a condition that I was compelled to secure leave of absence from duty for two months, and "doctor up" and rest for a while. One of our passenger conductors spoke in glowing terms to me of your Syrup Pepsin. More to satisfy my folks than through any faith in the medicine, I agreed to try it.

I secured three bottles and took it according to directions faithfully. The result amazed me, as well as my local physician who seemingly had been unable to afford me any relief from the bloating after meals, terrible taste in my mouth almost constantly, and constant constipation. In ten days time I began to eat food that I had been "scared of" for ten months; the bloating and labored breathing after meals began to subside and my sleep began to benefit me. I kept right on with the Pepsin and in six weeks time I ate whatever I craved and when I felt like it.

I keep a bottle in my house constantly and whenever I need it I tackle it, and I find prompt relief from the maladies it is made to cure.

Any letters of inquiry from sufferers from indigestion or bowel trouble will be cheerfully and promptly answered. Yours very truly,

M. A. MORELAND.

THE FIRST MEETING IN MANY YEARS

Methodist Bishops Gather in Louisville.

Both the North and South Churches
Are Represented by Prominent Men.

MUCH BUSINESS COMES UP.

Louisville, Ky., April 26.—For the first time since 1844, when the original Methodist church in America divided into the churches north and south, the bishops of the two churches are meeting simultaneously in this city. The bishops of the southern church are called into session by the board of church extension. The northern bishops will be in session April 26-30 in regular semi-annual session, to review the work for the past half year, and plan that for the coming period.

The board of church extension of the M. E. church, south, will hear a report from Rev. P. H. Whisner, the secretary, and Mr. John Ouerbacker, the treasurer. About $47,000 will be donated needy churches in the various conferences and the mission field, while loans aggregation about $60,000 will be made.

The week following the gathering of the two churches in Louisville the regular annual meeting of bishops of the Methodist Episcopal church, south, will be held in Nashville, when the bishops will be assigned to conduct the various conferences all over the country.

To celebrate the unusual coincidence of the presence in the city of the heads of both branches of the Methodist church, the Epworth League Union will give a reception for all at the Fourth-avenue Methodist church, south, on the evening of Saturday, April 25.

The meeting of the northern bishops will be devoted to discussing the interests and needs of the church. The bishops will be the guests of the Trinity Methodist church.

This will also be the annual meeting of the bishops of the Methodist Episcopal church, south, and the business to be transacted is similar to that of the bishops of the northern church. The bishops of this church will be the guests of the Southern Methodist Episcopal churches of Louisville. It is seldom that so many distinguished churchmen are brought together in one city.

The Falls Cities Epworth League Union will observe the contemporaneous meeting of the two houses of bishops in a reception Saturday night, April 29, at the Fourth-avenue Methodist Episcopal church, south. Addresses will be delivered by bishops of both branches of the church.

During the week the following meetings have been provided: Friday night, Bishop W. A. Candler, of Atlanta, and Bishop H. C. Morrison, of New Orleans.

Bishop ("Chaplain") C. C. McCabe, of Philadelphia, will speak of "Lights and Shadows of Libby Prison." Bishop Henry W. Warren, of Denver, will deliver his lecture on "The Romance of a Sunbeam," and Bishop Charles A. Fowler, of New York, will give his address on "Abraham Lincoln."

On Sunday, April 30, the bishops will occupy various churches in the Falls cities.

Arrangements to entertain the southern bishops have been made as follows: Bishop W. W. Duncan, of Spartanburg, S. C., with G. A. Parks; Bishop W. A. Candler, of Atlanta, and A. W. Wilson, of Baltimore, with Mrs. John A. Carter; Bishop C. B. Galloway, of Jackson, Miss., with P. H. Tapp; Bishop Eugene R. Hendrix, of Kansas City, with T. L. Jefferson; Bishop Joseph R. Key, of Sherman, Tex., with Mrs. Bamforth; Bishop A. Coke Smith, of Norfolk, Va., with the Rev. Dr. T. R. Kendall; Bishop E. Embree Hoss, of Dallas, Tex., with the Rev. W. W. Pinson, Bishop H. C. Morrison, of New Orleans, with Horace Morrison; Bishop John C. Granberry, of Ashland, Va., with John L. Wheat.

The separation of Methodism into two churches, the north and south, was due to the causes which brought about the civil war. Those who sympathized with the south withdrew from the old church and became a separate body. The recognition of the great common heritage, however, and of some overmastering zeal for the world's evangelization has brought a fraternity of spirit that is finding expression in many ways.

Wants Game With Paducah.

The Paducah High school baseball team has received a letter from a baseball manager in Marion, Ill. The writer stated that he had a ball team in Marion and would play any team in Paducah except the league team, the High school team preferred.

The team will come on an excursion to be run from Marion Sunday and while it would not be expected of the Paducah team, in case a game was arranged, the Marion team would appreciate the courtesy if the locals would provide them a good hotel to dress in and secure their meals.

The High school team can play no ball on Sunday but will probably refer the challenge to some other team, probably one of the city league.

Offers Good Inducements to Farmers to Run Lines to Mayfield Exchange.

Representatives of the Cumberland Telephone company have been here this week conferring with officers and stockholders of the local telephone companies recently organized in this county for the purpose of consolidation. It is understood that no deal has been consummated and there is not much likelihood of it.—Mayfield Messenger.

Representatives of the Cumberland state that the company is not trying to consolidate the lines, but is simply offering the farmers in Graves county, who are building their own lines, free connection with the Mayfield exchange if they want to come into Mayfield.

As yet nothing has been done, but it is likely that the majority of the farmers with private lines will accept, as it will mean that they can from their own homes miles from Mayfield get connection anywhere they want it, not only in but out of the county as well, and it will cost them but a nominal sum to have their lines run into the Cumberland exchange.

Second Baseman William Roland, the man for whose services Terre Haute offered Manager Dan six players, has at last arrived in the city to settle down and play ball. He has been appointed by the manager as captain of the team and in that capacity he is sure to devote his best efforts toward the making of a pennant-winning team.

Percy Wilder, who combines the qualities of ladies man with those of a pitcher, is likely to soon show up in this city where he pitched last year. He is a "dandy" at both games and his friends will be glad to have him back. Wilder was drafted by St. Paul and was later turned over to Toledo, by which team he was later released.

Miss Florence Yeiser and Mr. James Campbell, Jr., to Marry May 10.

Announcement is made today of the approaching marriage of Miss Florence Yeiser and Mr. James Campbell, Jr., of this city. The wedding will take place on May 10 at 5:30 in the afternoon at the First Presbyterian church. Rev. W. E. Cave, D. D., will perform the ceremony. No invitations will be issued in the city, but have been sent out of town.

The wedding will be characterized by a simplicity but charm of setting. Miss Anna May Yeiser, sister of the bride will be the maid of honor, and Mr. Will Bradshaw, Jr., is the best man. The bride and maid of honor will wear white. The ushers are: Mr. Maurice Nash, Jr., of Louisville; Mr. Louis M. Riecke, Jr., Mr. Arthur Martin and Mr. Thomas B. Harrison, of the city.

The marriage is one of especial social interest as it marks the union of two popular young people of prominent Paducah families. Miss Yeiser is the second daughter of Mayor and Mrs. D. A. Yeiser, and since her debut has been a favorite in the social circles. Of an attractive personality, bright and intellectual, her many fine and lovable qualities and sincerity of manner have endeared her to a host of friends in her girlhood home. Mr. Campbell is one of the rising young lawyers of the city, and is a member of the prominent law firm Campbell and Campbell. He is a son of Judge James Campbell and comes of a line of intellectual men and women.

The couple will leave immediately after the ceremony on a bridal trip of indefinite length.

Club Function.

The afternoon reception and evening smoker of the Paducah Chess, Checker and Whist club, yesterday at the club quarters, was a most brilliant occasion. The rooms were charmingly decorated, though needing nothing to complete their artistic effect. In the afternoon garrisons were presented to the ladies who called. Punch was served and Deal's orchestra played during the hours.

This is the fourth anniversary of the club's organization, which now has 232 members. Over $4,000 has been spent in fitting up the handsome rooms. Fully 1,000 guests were received yesterday. Dr. J. Q. Taylor has been the president of the club since its organization.

A Woodville Wedding.

Miss Mamie Tomlinson and Mr. Hugh Stapp were married last evening at Woodville, Ky., Rev. W. P. Hamilton officiating. They are popular young people, the bride being a daughter of Squire Tomlinson, and the groom the young man slated for deputy county clerk if Mr. Hiram Smedley, the Democratic nominee, is elected in November. They will reside at Woodville.

House Party at the Pines.

Mr. and Mrs. Jos. L. Friedman will entertain Judge and Mrs. H. D. Laughlin and Mr. and Mrs. John Roth, of Chicago, at the Pines next week. Judge Laughlin is manager of the Great Northern Hotel of Chicago, and Mr. Roth is manager of the Auditorium Annex of Chicago.

Entre Nous Club.

Miss Robbie Loving entertained the Entre Nous club yesterday afternoon. It was a very delightful occasion.

AN EVEN DOZEN

Is the Number of Children a Man Has Who Wants to Be Postmaster.

Washington, April 26.—Another man wants to be made a postmaster because of the size of his family. Not long ago Henry Louis Moore of Sedalia, Mo., made application for the position of postmaster in his home town and filed as his principal recommendation a picture of himself, his wife and twelve children.

Now comes an applicant for a similar position in Pennsylvania, and he sends a picture of himself, his wife and ten children. He is Joseph E. Hart, of Doylestown, Pa. He states that he is an ardent admirer of President Roosevelt and believes with him that there should be no race suicide. His ten children are all healthy looking. Eight of them are girls, the youngest being a baby 6 or 8 months old and the eldest 17 years old.

Mr. Hart is still a little behind Mr. Moore, and it is agreed in the post office department that the latter's children are the best-looking of any applicant yet presented. It is quite probable that Fourth Assistant Postmaster General Degraw will have to start a file case for such applicants. Several cases of this kind have been received so far, but the families of Messrs. Moore and Hart are the largest on record.

KILLED A SKUNK.

The Chicken Population of Paducah Rid of at Least One Enemy.

Mr. Frank Budde, of 12th and Norton street, employed at the local I. C. shops, killed a real "pole-cat" in his chicken coop last night.

For the past several nights Mr. Budde has been relieved of several chickens and last night decided to watch for the thief. He kept in the rear of his house and hearing his fowls in excitement, went out and found an animal trying to kill his chickens.

Mr. Budde had a revolver and fired. The bullet struck the cat and death was instantaneous. On examination it was found to be a genuine polecat or skunk. Mr. Budde does not care to stuff the trophy, however, but will be content to bury him as deep as possible.

ATTEMPT THWARTED.

Supposed Burglar Frightened From Mr. Tom Glenn's Home.

This morning about 2 or 3 o'clock a man entered the home of Operator Tom Glenn, of the Illinois Central, 995 Clark street, and aroused his ten year old daughter by the noise he made. She cried out that someone was in the house and the man ran and disappeared before it could be determined whether he was black or white. He entered the front door either by finding it unlocked or by having a skeleton key. The door was locked before the family retired. Nothing was stolen, as he was frightened away before he had time.

DIKES ON THE OHIO SOON TO BE STARTED

The United States Advertiser to Open Bids May 31.

Two Dikes to Be Constructed, One at Grand Chain, and the Other Near Mound City, Ill.

ALWAYS BE A BOATING STAGE.

The government has advertised for bids for building two dikes in the Ohio river below Paducah, one at the head of Grand Chain, 18 or 20 miles below Paducah, and the other near Mound City, 35 miles below Paducah.

Notice that bids would be opened on May 31st, at Cincinnati, was today received at the boat store, and thus the years of earpest work to bring about improvements that will give the lower Ohio a good boating stage the year around, are about to bear fruit.

The advertisement is as follows: U. S. Engineer's Office, Custom House, Cincinnati, O., May 1. Sealed proposals for building dikes in the Ohio river at the following locations, or any one of them, viz.: 1. Diike and shore protection near the head of Grand Chain; 2. Dikes and shore protection with repairs to existing dikes near Mound City, Ill., will be received here until 1 a. m. May 31st, and then be publicly opened. Information furnished on application.

(Signed,) E. H. RUFFNER, Lieut. Col. Corps of Engineers, U. S. A.

The survey for the dikes, bids for which have now been issued, was made two years ago by Capt. Caldwell, of Cincinnati, who came down on a government boat and spent three weeks with his assistants, doing the work.

It requires a long time for the mills of Uncle Sam to grind, but it is believed that good results are now about to be achieved by the men who have labored so perseveringly for the above improvement.

Capt. Carpenter, of Cincinnati, made the soundings for these dikes six years ago. Four years later Capt. Caldwell made the surveys and reported to Maj. Bisby, who in return made formal report resulting in a recommendation of the work by the Rivers and Harbors committee of congress, and congress later gave full authority to have the dikes built.

The bids to be opened in little over a month are for building the dikes. It is estimated that they will cost $150,000 each, or both together possibly about $250,000, if one man gets both contracts.

One of the main factors in getting this improvement has been the Ohio Valley Improvement association, which has for several years put forth every effort to have congress order it.

When the dikes are built they will cause the water to back up and keep a boating stage from Cairo to several miles above Paducah the year around. There will then be no such thing as a suspension between Paducah and Cairo of navigation, as happens now every year, first by the larger boats having to retire from the trade for the smaller ones, and finally by all the boats having to lay up.

There is now a dike at Mound City, but it is of no use and it is bad repair.

WEDS TONIGHT.

85 Year Old Bridegroom Goes for His Bride.

Mr. F. C. Hudson, of Woodville, who is 85 years-old and going to take unto himself a third wife, will be married this evening to Miss Belle Dougherty, of Hagland, at the residence of Justice Tapp near Woodville by Justice Tapp.

Early this morning the groom left for Hagland in a buggy to secure his bride and will return late this afternoon. The marriage will take place tonight and the couple will reside on Mr. Hudson's farm near Woodville. The license was secured two days ago in Paducah, after efforts had been made by his relatives to prevent it.

Has Not Selected Site. The Thompson Transfer company has not yet decided on where it will have its yard and office, but it will be down-town not far from Broadway. It now has two sites in view, one of them being the Potter wagon yard, the price of which, $10,000, will probably cause them to select another place. The company will purchase an entirely new equipment, including the finest transfer wagons to be bought.

LOOKING FOR SON

IOWA MAN TRACES BOY FROM MEMPHIS TO PADUCAH.

Was Here March 10th, But It Is Not Known Where He Went From Here.

Mr. F. M. Stacy, clerk of the district court at Osceola, Iowa, is in Paducah looking for his son, Mr. Ira Stacy, aged 19, who is missing, the father having secured no trace of him since March 10th, when he was traced to Paducah.

The son left home some time ago and had written to his father regularly from Memphis where he was employed in a restaurant, until March 3, when his letters suddenly stopped coming.

The father heard no more and thinking his son was ill or had met with some accident started out on a search. He traced the son to Paducah where he had come from Memphis. The boy was here from March 3 to 10, but no one knows where he went or can secure any trace of him. The father secured the aid of local police who are trying to secure some clue to his whereabouts.

OFF FOR MARION

ODD FELLOWS LEAVE TO CAPTURE NEXT MEETING FOR PADUCAH.

Only 85 Tickets Sold Out of Paducah—Deal's Band, of the City, Enters Contest.

The annual interstate meeting of the I. O. O. F. is being held today in Marion, Ill. Paducah sent a delegation from both Mangum and Inglewood lodges to attempt to secure the next meeting which will be held the same date in 1907.

A special excursion train was run out of Paducah this morning, leaving the I. C. depot at 7 o'clock. A total of 86 tickets were sold and the Paducah delegation carried along a brass band, led by Prof. William Deal. Prof. Deal and his band will enter the band contests and attempt to capture first prize. He will play one piece in the contest which he thinks will capture first honors, this being a selection from "Il Trovatore."

It is thought Paducah will secure the next meeting.

A much larger crowd would have gone had the rate been more satisfactory. It was understood that a dollar rate was to be made, but for some reason it was increased to $1.50 and scores of those who intended to go said they would remain at home before they would pay the rate. This accounts, it is said, for the small crowd.

PADUCAH PRESBYTERY

Is Now in Session at Henderson—Rev W. E. Cave Attending.

The Paducah Presbytery of the Presbyterian church is in session at Henderson, and the final adjournment will probably take place Friday morning. Rev. W. E. Cave is attending from Paducah.

The session is a most important one to the members of that denomination. Some very important business will be transacted and during the course of the meeting the strongest ministers of the organization will preach. The opening sermon was preached by Rev. S. F. Martin of Marion, Ky.

This afternoon and evening several addresses on the different branches of the church will be delivered. Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock Dr. W. C. Clark, of Louisville, will deliver an address on "Kentucky Evangelization." In the evening of that day Rev. J. C. Davis, of Nashville, and Field Secretary of the Foreign Missions Board will speak on "The Foreign Movement in Missions."

The following officers for the Presbytery were elected: Rev. C. N. Wharton, of Morgantown, moderator; Rev. G. W. Merrill, of Princeton, secretary.

FOR THE SECOND TIME

A Popular Railroad Man Loses A His Chickens.

Mr. O. Rober, foreman of machine work in the local I. C. round house, lives a short distance beyond the city limits on the Hinkleville road, and takes a great pride in chicken raising. Last night he had a coop well filled with chickens; there being about 24, and this morning when Mr. Rober went out to release them found only the rooster left.

Thieves had entered the chicken house by tearing off boards, and taken every fowl except the rooster, and the owner says he will be pleased if the thief will return and take the rooster. He will attempt to raise no more chickens. It is the second time he has been cleaned out, the first time being a few weeks ago.

PADUCAH ASKED TO HELP PAY FOR TRIP

Effort to Be Made to Have $500 Donated.

Capt. S. A. Fowler Writes in Regard to Entertainment of the Rivers and Harbors Delegation.

WE MUST KEEP UP WITH CAIRO.

Capt. J. Frank Ellison, of Cincinnati, of the Ohio Valley Improvement association, has written Capt. S. A. Fowler another letter in regard to what part of the cost of the Rivers and Harbors committee's trip down the Ohio Paducah will pay. The expenses of the trip must be born by the cities themselves along the river or the committee could not have made it.

The larger cities are going to contribute freely, as the total expense will be about $12,000. Cairo has donated $500 towards the expenses, and will in addition give the commission a swell banquet.

It is believed that Paducah will do as well as Cairo in regard to the subscription, but no banquet will be given here.

Capt. Ellison stated that he would like to hear suggestions as to the committee's stay in Paducah, and would probably be able to arrange it as desired by the citizens.

Capt. Fowler wrote in reply that it is hoped to have the commission in Paducah during one afternoon and night. It is expected that a day and a half will suffice to make the trip from Evansville or Henderson, putting the Queen City with her distinguished passengers into Paducah about 2 p. m.

It is proposed to meet them at the wharf and take them over the city in automobiles, and wind up in the country, where they will be entertained at one of the swellest and most hospitable country places in the state.

In the evening there will be a smoker at the boat or somewhere else, to be decided on later, at which the people of Paducah may have an opportunity to meet their guests. No banquet will be given, but the visitors will doubtless feel that they have been royally treated when they get ready to leave Paducah.

Capt. Fowler has assured Capt. Ellison that he will do all in his power to have Paducah contribute $500 towards the trip, and will at the meeting of the council Monday night place the matter before the members, and hopes to see it receive favorable consideration. If it is turned down, it will simply mean that someone will have to go around and make up a subscription to raise the money, or leave Paducah in the attitude of a "short" city, less enterprising, hospitable and generous than Cairo.

METHODIST MEETING

At La Center On Saturday—Dinner On the Ground.

Quarterly conference will be held at La Center on Saturday. Presiding Elder J. H. Roberts will preach and preside at the session. The singing will be in charge of May Trice, of La Center, E. Randolph, of New Hope, J. W. Hart, of Paducah. Dinner will be served on the grounds in old-time style. Everyone is invited.

PAY PADUCAH A BRIEF VISIT ON REGULAR DELEGATION.

The Dawson Depot to Be Enlarged and Improved This Spring.

Supt. A. H. Egna, Roadmaster F. L. Thompson, Supervisor of Bridges and Buildings W. C. Wagener, Supervisor of Track and Road Bed Wm. McNamara and T. A. Downs, division freight agent, were in the city last night.

The officials were here on business, looking over the local terminals and attending to each department of the business. They left today for the division after completing their work.

Supervisor Wagener was here to look after the painting of the passenger depot. The painters are today on the inside of the building making good progress. After leaving here the gang will be sent to the Louisville depot to paint it.

Supervisor Wagener stated last night that the road would immediately improve the Dawson depot by remodeling and enlarging it. Material for the work is being shipped out of Central City this week and the carpenters will go to work at once. This will be a great improvement and the people of Dawson and patrons of the springs will appreciate the action, the depot being too small and with little or no accommodations.

A Dandy for Burns. Dr. Bergin, Paducah, Ill., writes: "I have used Ballard's Snow Liniment; always recommended it to my friends as I am confident there is no better made. It is a dandy for burns. Those who live on farms are especially liable to many accidental cuts, burns, bruises, which heal rapidly when Ballard's Snow Liniment is applied. It should always be kept in the house for cases of emergency." 25c, 50c, $1 bottle.

The Wings of the Morning

By LOUIS TRACY
Copyright, 1903, by Edward J. Clode

"Be advised by me, Sir Arthur, and you, too, Iris," he said. "This is no hour for explanations. Leave me to deal with Lord Ventnor. I am content to trust the ultimate verdict to you, Sir Arthur. You will learn in due course all that has happened. As you heard, Iris, meet Lord Ventnor as you would meet any other friend. You will not marry him, I know. I can trust you."

"I am very much obliged to you," murmured the baronet, who, notwithstanding his worry, was far too experienced a man of the world not to acknowledge the good sense of this advice, no matter how rudely might be the guise of the strange person who gave it.

"That is settled, then," said Robert, laughing good naturedly, for he well knew what a weird spectacle he must present to the bewildered old gentleman.

Even Sir Arthur Deane was fascinated by the rugged and hairy giant who carried himself so masterfully and helped everybody over the stile at the right moment. He tried to develop the change in the conversation.

"By the way," he said, "how came you to be on the ship? I have a list of all the passengers and crew, and your name does not appear there."

"Oh, that is easily accounted for. I shipped as a steward in the name of Robert Jenks."

"Robert Jenks? A steward?"

"Yes. That forms some part of the promised explanation."

Iris rapidly gathered the drift of her lover's wishes.

"Come, father," she cried merrily. "I am aching to see what the ship's stores, which you and Robert pin your faith to, can do for me in the shape of garments. I have the utmost belief in the British navy, and even a skeptic should be convinced of its infallibility if H. M. S. Orient is able to provide a lady's outfit."

Sir Arthur Deane gladly availed himself of the proffered compromise. He assisted Iris into the boat, though that active young person was far better able to support him, and a word to the officer in command sent the gig flying back to the ship. Anstruther during a momentary delay made a small request on his own account. Lieutenant Playdon, nearly as big a man as Robert, dispatched a note to his servant, and the gig speedily returned with a complete assortment of clothing and linen. The man also brought a dressing case, with the result that a dip in the bath and ten minutes in the hands of an expert valet made Anstruther a new man.

Acting under his advice, the bodies of the dead were thrown into the lagoon, the wounded were collected in the hut, to be attended to by the ship's surgeon, and the prisoners were paraded in front of Mr. Jan, who identified every man and found by counting heads that none was missing.

Robert did not forget to write out a formal notice and fasten it to the rock. This proceeding further mystified the officers of the Orient, who had gradually formed a connected idea of the great fight made by the shipwrecked pair, though Anstruther squirmed inwardly when he thought of the manner in which Iris would picture the scene. As it was, he had the first innings, and he did not fail to use the opportunity. In the few terse words which he described the girl's fortitude, her undaunted cheerfulness, her uncomplaining readiness, to do and dare.

When he ended, the first lieutenant, who commanded the boats sent in pursuit of the flying Dyaks—the Orient sank both sampans as soon as they were launched—summed up the general verdict:

"You do not need our admiration, Captain Anstruther. Each man of us envies you from the bottom of his soul."

"There is an error about my rank," he said. "I did once hold a commission in the Indian army, but I was court-martialed and cashiered in Hongkong six months ago. I was unjustly convicted on a grave charge, and I hope some day to clear myself. Meanwhile I am a mere civilian. It was only Miss Deane's generous sympathy which led her to mention my former rank, Mr. Playdon."

Had another of the Orient's twelve pounder shells suddenly burst in the midst of the group of officers it would have created less dismay than this unexpected avowal. Court-martialed! Cashiered! None but a service man can grasp the awful significance of those words to the commissioned ranks of the army and navy.

Anstruther well knew what he was doing. Somehow he found nothing hard in the performance of this penance now. Of course the ugly truth must be revealed the moment Lord Ventnor heard his name. It was not fair to the good fellows crowding around him and offering every attention that the frigate hospitality of the British sailor could suggest to permit them to adopt the tone of friendly equality which right discipline if nothing else would not allow them to maintain.

The first lieutenant by reason of his rank was compelled to say something.

"That is a devilish bad job, Mr. Anstruther," he blurted out.

"Well, you know I had to tell you." He smiled unaffectedly at the wondering circle. He, too, was an officer and appreciated their sentiments. They were unfeignedly sorry for him, a man so brave and modest, such a splendid type of the soldier and gentleman, yet by their common law an outcast. Nor could they wholly understand his demeanor. There was a noble dignity in his candor, a conscious innocence that disdained to shield itself under a pallid truth.

The first lieutenant again phrased the thoughts of his juniors.

"I and every other man in the ship cannot help but sympathize with you. But whatever may be your record—if you were an escaped convict, Mr. Anstruther—no one could withhold from you the praise deserved for your magnificent stand against overwhelming odds. Our duty is plain. We will bring you to Singapore, where the others will no doubt wish to go immediately. I will tell the captain what you have been good enough to acquaint us with. Meanwhile we will give you every assistance and attention in our power."

A murmur of approbation ran through the little circle. Robert's face paled somewhat. What first rate champions were they, to be sure!

"I can only thank you," he said unsteadily. "Your kindness is more trying than adversity."

A rustle of silk, the intrusion into the tent knot of men of a young lady in a Paris gown, a Paris hat, carrying a Trouville parasol and most exquisitely gloved and booted, made every one gasp.

"Oh, Robert, dear, how could you? I actually didn't know you!"

Thus Iris, bewitchingly attired, was gazing now with provoking admiration at Robert, who certainly offered almost as great a contrast to his former state as did the girl herself. He returned her look with interest.

"Would any man believe," he laughed, "that clothes would do so much for a woman?"

"What a left handed compliment! But, come, dearest, Captain Fitzroy and Lord Ventnor have come ashore with father and me. They want us to show them everything! You will excuse him, won't you?" she added, with a scarping smile to the others.

They walked off together.

"Jimmy!" gasped a fat midshipman to a lanky youth. "She's got on your toes!"

Meaning that Iris had ransacked the Orient's theatrical wardrobe and pounced on the swell outfit of the principal female impersonator in the ship's company.

Hitching Posts Disappearing.

"Have you noticed," asked a Kansas City man the other day, "how the hitching post is disappearing? A few years ago almost every residence and many stores in Kansas City had hitching posts in front of them. Now you'll have to go a long way to find a single post. The hitching ring has been a factor in the disappearance of the post, but the hitching weight has been a bigger one."—Kansas City Times.

MAKES WORK EASY.

Paducah People Are Pleased to Learn How It Is Done.

It's pretty hard to attend to duties with a constantly aching back; With annoying urinary disorders, Doan's Kidney Pills make work easier.

They cure backache. They cure every kidney ail.

W. K. Tilley, of 400 South Third street, tobacco packer with the Allison & Veal Tobacco Co., on North Third street, says: "An aching back to a tobacco packer is not only a nuisance but it keeps him in misery. Despite all my efforts to cure mine by using household remedies and trying treatments guaranteed by friends and acquaintances, I was unable to check it, let alone cure it, until I procured Doan's Kidney Pills at DuBois, Kolb & Co's drug store, on Broadway. The first box gave such satisfaction that I bought a second and was highly pleased with the results. To say I endorse Doan's Kidney Pills mildly expresses my opinion of that remedy."

Pain in the Head

Is a danger signal, warning you that the brain nerves are exhausted—irritated, and are undergoing an unnatural strain.

Frequent and prolonged attacks of pain weaken the generative power of the nerve cells of the brain, and lead to loss of memory, melancholy, spasms, epilepsy, and frequently insanity.

When the brain nerves are weakened they are unable to supply sufficient nerve force to the nerves that control the lungs, heart, stomach and other organs, and these organs are thus robbed of energy, and unable to meet the demands upon them, and they get sick.

Stop the head pains with Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills, and the influence upon your general health will be greater than you can realize.

"I want to tell you how thankful I am for Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills. From a child I have been subject to headache, and never found any lasting relief until I received a sample of Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills while in Geneva six years ago. By taking one it usually throws off my pain, so I can go about my home duties."

MRS. ALMA GATES, R. F. D. No. 4, Geneva, Ohio. Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills are sold by your druggist, who will guarantee that the first package will benefit. If it fails he will return your money. 25 doses, 25 cents. Never sold in bulk. Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind.

COLLEGE MAN

Is an Expense and His Folks Can't Get Damages.

Bloomington, Ill., April 25.—A unique point in damage suit has been brought out by a decision of Judge Wright in the Champaign county court. Last fall a railroad dining-car was derailed, and Ralph O. Roberts, a student of the University of Illinois, was killed. He was a prominent athlete, and the accident attracted considerable attention, his administrator bringing suit for $10,000.

The defendant's attorney moved that the suit be dismissed on the plea that the plaintiff had not introduced evidence to show that any person was depending upon Roberts for support, and that being a college man he really was an expense to his parents during that period of life. The judge decides that the point is well taken and has dismissed the case. An appeal was taken.

Ballard's Horehound Syrup.

An Anti-Osler Birthday.

Natchez, Miss., April 25.—Eighty-one citizens of Natchez, representing every branch of business, from bankers to cotton factors and retail merchants, attended Capt. John C. Fowler's "anti-Osler" birthday outing at his plantation, twelve miles below Natchez. Gray-haired men of 70 years played baseball, marbles, tops and jacks and then enjoyed an al fresco dinner. Capt. Fowler is a retired steamboat man and his birthday party is a big event in the country.

INTO SOUTH

EFFORTS WILL BE MADE TO RUN THE TIDE OF IMMIGRATION.

A Political Question Will Likely Be That of Excluding the Japanese.

Washington, April 26.—Commissioner of Immigration Sargent has been giving long and serious thought to the problem of turning the tide of foreign immigration which now flows into the North Atlantic ports and congests the surrounding territory into the more southerly and westerly portions of the country, where population is needed. His latest suggestion has been made to the great railway lines of the south and west. He has asked their managers who are anxious to attract immigrants to develop the territory tributary to these railroads, to get steamships to take immigrants to Savannah, New Orleans, Baltimore and Boston.

For the past two months there has been a wonderfully strong flow in immigration to this country. During the month of February 67,117 landed in this country, as against 33,967 in 1904 and 47,267 in 1903. Of the immigrants who came in February, 51,867 landed in New York, 2,789 in Boston and 7,013 in Baltimore. New York held its own in March. Baltimore showed an increase to more than 10,000 and Boston a slight falling off. In February Galveston got but 97 immigrants and New Orleans but 124. Yet Galveston and New Orleans are right in the territory where immigrants are wanted, while New York, Baltimore and Boston are centers of congested population. A very large proportion of the immigrants who land at New York and Boston remain in the vicinity of those cities. The immigrants who land in Baltimore pass on, as a rule.

The exclusion of Japanese promises to become a political question in the next campaign in Pacific coast states, especially California. The exodus of laborers from Hawaii to the mainland had also become so great as to alarm employers of labor in the territory.

RIVER NEWS

The gauge today is 12.2 and falling.

The Joe Fowler was the Evansville packet today.

Capt. Wallace Farnesley goes to Evansville today as pilot on the Joe Fowler, relieving Pilot Newman for a trip.

A telegram from Hot Springs, Ark. to the Courier-Journal, announces the serious illness in that city of W. C. Jutte, head of the C. Jutte company coal interests. His condition is such that grave fears are entertained. Mr. Jutte is suffering from blood poisoning. Several weeks ago he went to Louisville, where he was taken ill at the Galt house, a number of carbuncles appeared on his neck and a Louisville physician was called to prescribe for him. The carbuncles disappeared and he continued on his way to New Orleans. He was immediately ordered to Hot Springs by his family physician. He is a brother of Mr. A. Jutte, who was in Paducah yesterday.

The Clyde leaves this evening at 6 for Tennessee river and the Kentucky will be due out tomorrow, and return Saturday.

The Rees Lee passed down yesterday en route from Cincinnati for Memphis.

Mate James Conlin, of the Pittsburg and Cincinnati Packet Queen City, was exonerated from all blame in regard to the death of Fred Horner, a deckhand, at a hearing in the United States district court.

More than 1,000,000 bushels of coal were sent out from Pittsburg Monday. The boats that went out are as follows: Charles Brown, 11 boats, 8 barges; Voyager, 11 boats; Ironsides, 10 boats; Robert Jenkins, 11 boats; Iron Age, 17 boats, three barges.

The egg trade is very heavy at Pittsburg and the demand increasing. The Greenland went into port a few days ago with 1,500 cases. The Lovena took in on the same day 2,000 cases. The Virginia had a big lot, proving that there is "something doing" among the hens along the upper Ohio.

The Inland Navigator says: "The rivermen have carried the construction of steamboats fitted for this western river service to a science. No other streams in the world present such problems as do our own rivers nor have these problems been so satisfactorily solved. But the labor problem is still a troublesome one, and something will have to be done
